

Jill's Dance Studio Rules and Regulations

For all of Jill's Dance Studio dancers, parents and instructors.
This form must be turned in with your registration.

We hereby pledge to conduct ourselves with a positive attitude and in a manner that is in accordance with these rules and regulations:

1. We will encourage good behavior by demonstrating positive support for all dancers, parents and instructors while in the studio or during other sponsored activities.
2. We will help to keep the studio clean and tidy by picking up after ourselves and being responsible for our belongings.
3. We will do our best to ensure that dance classes are fun for everyone.
4. We will treat other dancers, instructors and parents with respect regardless of race, sex, creed, age or ability.
5. We will refrain from any gossip in general and promise to resolve differences in a mature and respectful manner.
6. We will demand a drug, alcohol and tobacco-free environment and agree to refrain from their use during dance activities.

Should we fail to abide by this code of conduct, we will be given a verbal warning; on the second offense we will be mailed a written warning; on the third offense you will be asked to leave Jill's Dance Studio.
